

A collection of vintage aviation artifacts is displayed on a light-colored tiled floor. In the foreground, a large, polished wooden propeller lies horizontally. Behind it, a dark, conical propeller nut and a long, black propeller pin with a yellow handle are visible. The items are resting on a piece of white paper or cloth. In the background, a rectangular sign with a black border and white background features the text "DÉFENSE D'ENTRER AÉRODROME" in black, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The sign is leaning against a white wall. To the left of the sign is a white radiator. To the right, another white radiator is mounted on the wall, with two yellow base heaters positioned below it. A window with a grey frame is visible in the upper left corner, showing some greenery outside.
